

ROUTE FOR THE BRAVE SHELBYVILLE WALK

Helping Hands For Freedom, a 501c3 non-profit aimed at helping military families dealing with death, loss and deployment, will be embarking on a trip across America next year along U.S. 40 known as Route For The Brave. The festivities begin in Atlantic City, New Jersey and will end in San Francisco, California.

Before then, we ask you to join us for Route For The Brave Shelbyville, a 5-mile walk around Shelbyville, on Oct. 18. The festivities will start and end at the circle downtown and we will be walking along State Road 44. The walk starts at 2:30 p.m. and will last until 4 p.m., but we will have plenty of events after.

The registration is $25 for adults (13 and over) and free for children Under 12. To register, please visit <http://shelbyvillewalk.eventbrite.com>. We will award prizes to the top male fundraiser, top female fundraiser and top child fundraiser, along with other prizes.

All proceeds go to Route For The Brave.
